Small Arena Cattle Working Section

The aim of the small arena cattle section of the ASH Stockman's Challenge is designed to showcase the Australian Stock Horse's ability to work a beast in a similar fashion to a Campdraft, but in a small arena.

Competitor _____ Horse _____

SECTION	REQUIREMENTS	SCORE
1.	Acknowledge judge, once a beast is released into the arena the competitor is required to work the beast in a manner that represents a cut-out, whilst at all times demonstrating control. The beast is to be worked on the short end of the arena where the beast was released from or at the judge's discretion. Section 1. Scored from a possible 30 points.	30
2.	Upon completing Section 1. Take the beast to the centre of the arena and perform a circle to the left or right (in either direction). Competitor must complete the circle at which time the competitor must change direction, whilst at all times showing control and position on the beast. Section 2. Scored from a possible 35 points.	35
3.	Upon completing Section 2. Continue with the beast and perform a circle in the opposite direction. Competitor must complete the circle at which time the competitor must change direction. Once the direction change has been made the judge will terminate the run by cracking a whip or blowing a whistle. Section 3. Scored from a possible 35 points.	35
Total Score		100
